

Cordially invites you to a colloquium on

“Current Research on Immigration and Transnationalism in the Americas: Main Problems, Approaches, and Methods”

Friday, April 26, 2013
Green Library 220
Florida International University
Miami, FL

Program

- 9:00 a.m. Registration and Coffee
- 9:30 a.m. Introductions and Welcoming Remarks
Dr. Jorge Duany, Director, Cuban Research Institute, Florida International University
Dr. Ariel Armony, Director, Center for Latin American Studies, University of Miami
Dr. Marifeli Pérez-Stable, Interim Director, Latin American and Caribbean Center, FIU
- 10:00 a.m. Presentation: New Trends and Problems in Transnational Migration in the Americas
Dr. Jorge Durand, Professor of Anthropology, University of Guadalajara

Chair: Dr. María Aysa-Lastra, Professor of Sociology, Florida International University
- 11:00 a.m. Coffee Break
- 11:15 a.m. Presentation: Transnational Migration Theory and Research: Past Developments and Future Trends
Dr. Ninna Nyberg Sorensen, Senior Researcher, Danish Institute for International Studies

Chair: Dr. Sallie Hughes, Associate Professor of Communication, University of Miami
- 12:15 p.m. Lunch
- 1:30 p.m. Presentation: Assimilation and Transnationalism: Complementary or Alternative Paradigms?
Dr. Silvia Pedraza, Professor of Sociology, University of Michigan

Chair: Dr. Gonzalo Soruco, Associate Professor of Communication, University of Miami
- 2:30 p.m. Break Up into Groups of UM/FIU Researchers
- 3:30 p.m. Conclusions and Next Steps
Dr. Jorge Duany
- 4:00 p.m. Adjournment

For additional information and to RSVP, please call CRI at (305) 348-1991.

