
CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO OUR

Second Conference on Reconciliation and Change: The German Experience

This is the second conference hosted by the Cuba Study Group's Reconciliation Project, which seeks to educate and create a space for respectful dialogue on reconciliation processes from around the world. This conference will explore Germany's experience with reunification at the end of the Cold War and consider how its lessons may be applied to an eventual process of reconciliation among Cubans.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Günter Nooke, Personal Representative for Africa of German Chancellor Angela Merkel, Former Federal Commissioner for Human Rights Policy and Humanitarian Aid at the German Federal Foreign Office, and co-founder of the East German opposition movement "Demokratischer Aufbruch"

Carlos Saladrigas, Chairman, Cuba Study Group

Dieter Dettke, Adjunct Graduate Professor, BMW center for German and European Studies, Georgetown University; Former U.S. Representative and Executive Director of the Washington Office of the Friedrich Ebert Foundation

Rt. Rev. Leo Frade, Episcopal Bishop of Southeast Florida

Dr. Marifeli Pérez-Stable, Professor, Global & Sociocultural Studies, Florida International University

Dagoberto Valdés, Catholic intellectual and the editor and founder of Vitral and Convivencia magazines in Pinar del Río, Cuba.

Friday, October 4th
8:30 am to 4:00 pm

Miami Dade College Wolfson Campus Auditorium

300 N.E. Second Avenue, Building 1, Room 1261
Miami, Florida 33132

(Entrances to parking garage on NE 5th Street and NE 6th Street)

RSVP to Ricardo Herrero

305-905-9452

or Ricardo.Herrero@cubastudygroup.org

