

Cuban Research Institute

School of International and Public Affairs

CLASSICALLY CUBAN CONCERT: Music for Martí

December 9, 2012 | 5:00 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus
Wertheim Performing Arts Center (WPAC) Concert Hall
10910 S.W. 17th Street | Miami, FL 33199

The Cuban Research Institute at FIU will be hosting its annual Classically Cuban concert on Sunday, December 9, 2012. The concert will be held in the Wertheim Performing Arts Center at FIU's Modesto Maidique Campus. The program will present music compiled and presented by independent scholar Emilio Cueto. It will feature compositions inspired by José Martí as well as pieces setting his texts to music. The concert, under the musical direction of Professor Armando Tranquilino, will include selections spanning over one hundred years by both Cuban and foreign authors.

Tickets are now on sale! Ticket prices: Adults $35; Senior Citizens and Students $30; FIU and UM Students/Alumni, Faculty and Staff $15

Reception following concert. For tickets and information call (305)348-2894 or visit our website at cri.fiu.edu

Co-sponsored by the Latin American and Caribbean Center at FIU and

